Rosie's Story

Humbly birthed in 1946 as the Silver Dollar Diner of Little Ferry, New Jersey. The original Rosie's Diner earned national acclaim and took on its current name in 1971, when the Bounty paper towels "quicker picker upper" TV commercial made the diner and waitress Rosie (a.k.a. the late actress Nancy Walker) household icons. Since then, Rosie's Diner has been featured in more than 100 TV commercials, five movies, numerous TV specials and magazine ads, and is now one of the most photographed buildings in the country. Local Owner A.B. Tellez purchased this Rosie's Diner replica in 2006 and along with his wonderful staff, continue to build on this classic Americana concept!
